Angaben zum Inhalt
Lehrinhalte	The changes in social conditions and the dynamics of the globalised world seem to make the desire for "home" difficult for many people to grasp and perhaps even unattainable. At the same time, however, the term "home" is experiencing a boom in current social and political discourse. The seminar tries to explain the term "home" from a multidisciplinary perspective and to emphasize the importance for social work. The participants will intensively deal with the terms "home" and "migration".
